

THE SINGLE THOUGHT.

A bachelor sat in his chair and he thought,
And he made up his mind that he wouldn't be caught.

And yet he wanted to do what he ought,
And he thought, and he thought, and he thought.

A little maid sat in her chair and she thought,
And she made up her mind that she wouldn't be caught.

And yet she wanted to do what she ought,
And she thought, and she thought, and she thought.

A Bachelor sat in a chair, and he thought,
And a little maid sat by him, just as she ought.

For, alas, they forgot about not being caught,
But they thought,
And they thought,
And they thought.

"READING CIRCLE"

Methods

To School Superintendents: I heartily endorse the work of the Kentucky Reading Circle and to urge upon each county and city Superintendent the importance of this phase of educational work. We cannot over-estimate the value of good books and the importance of directing the reading of the boys and girls of school age in right channels.

precious thoughts and pour their souls into

There should be a Reading Circle established in every school district of the State. Every teacher of the State should, by all means, take the teachers' course. It is expected that each County Superintendent set apart a suitable time at the Institute or at the District Association for the purpose of outlining the plan of work. He should do everything possible to arouse a general interest and to crystallize public sentiment in favor of more and better reading. School Boards in the cities should see that three or four sets of the present adoption is placed in each room of the building. The present adoption is good, and I urge that each Superintendent give it his earnest support.

Once a reporter called him "Mac," and in a slightly ironical tone he said: "Don't call me Mac. It's too cold and formal. Call me Johnnie!" Mr. BRYAN is not calling him Johnnie now.

AT the recent unveiling at Fort Meigs, of the monument to the heroes of the War of 1812, Colonel Bennett H. Young, of Kentucky, said, in part:

"What a marvelous thing it is to be able to stand in this distant State and say: 'It is our country.' I came from the State of Kentucky to thank the people of the Maumee Valley for this magnificent monument to our dead. There were only 1,800 men killed in the War of 1812, and of that number late put it up to Kentucky to sacrifice 1,000 of her sons. My kinsmen were in that fort on that day, on May 5th, 1813, and fought in the battles which saved this valley from conquest."

BRYAN AS PROPHET FAILS TO QUALIFY

Disasters He Foretold Never Come to Pass.

OPPOSITE IS ALWAYS TRUE.

Gold Standard Does Not Slay, Nor Does It Write Future in Blood.

As a prophet William Jennings Bryan has never been a success. The calamities which he has foretold would have brought unlimited disaster to the country if they had ever been realized. But they never came to pass. The harrowing pictures which he painted were merely figments of his imagination, based on absolutely no foundation whatever.

It is well to have Americans remember that prophecies uttered by the orator of the Platte must be discounted fully 100 per cent, for all signs indicate that he feels the fates once more and is about to begin prophesying again. A male Cassandra, Mr. Bryan might by this time have learned that the forecast of evil will never be believed by those who have found that in the past his predictions have been but empty air.

"Driving Country to Ruin."

For instance, when Mr. Bryan was a member of the house of representatives in 1892 he was absolutely certain that protection was driving the country headlong to rack and ruin, and in his speech delivered March 16 of that year he drew the following agonizing pictures:

"Protection has been our cannibal tree, and as one after another of our farmers has been driven by the force of circumstances upon that tree and has been crushed within its folds his companions have stood around and shouted, 'Great is protection!'  Thus in every state, so far as these statistics have been collected, the proportion of home owning farmers is decreasing and that of tenant farmers increasing. This means but one thing. It means a land of landlords and tenants, and, backed by the history of every nation that has gone down, I say to you that no people can continue a free people under a free government when the great majority of its citizens are tenants of a small minority. Your system (protective tariff) has driven the farm owner from his land and substituted the farm tenant."

How far this picture portrays the America of today or the America of any year since he made that speech any American can answer. Even in Mr. Bryan's own state he can find an answer right at his doors, for the farm lands of Nebraska have doubled in value.

"Murderous Gold Standard."

But during the four years succeeding that speech Mr. Bryan's agitation grew no less nor did the demon which he had raised in his own imagination bide with diminished head, for in 1896 he again saw destruction threatening the country. He had a remedy for it, a panacea, a fetish which he held up for worship—free silver. Here are some of the things Mr. Bryan said would happen if the gold standard were continued:

"I reply that if protection has slain its thousands the gold standard has slain its tens of thousands."—From Speech at Democratic National Convention July, 1896.

"Do not let the Republicans beguile you about the future. The future is written in blood crushed out of you by gold."—From Speech at Erie, Pa., August, 1896.

"Ah, my friends, there is another reason why people have gone into the cities and left the farms. It is because your legislation has been causing the foreclosure of mortgages upon the farms.  Mark my words! If the gold standard goes on and people continue to complain the gold standard advocates instead of trying to improve the condition of the people will be recommending that you close your schools so that the people will not realize how much they are suffering."—From Speech at Monmouth, Ill., October, 1896.

But whom has the gold standard slain? What future did it write in blood? What district schools did it close? Again the condition of the country makes a calm reply confuting the impassioned orator.

Campaigning again in 1900 Mr. Bryan decided that imperialism was another danger to the country. If it were continued the Fourth of July would be forgotten by all Americans and the "spirit of '76" would become a thing of the past. Speaking at Lincoln Mr. Bryan said:

Sees Death of Patriotism.

"The fight this year will be to carry out the sentiment of that song we have so often repeated, 'My Country, 'Tis of Thee.' If we lose, our children and our children's children will not succeed to the spirit of that song, and celebrations of the Fourth of July will pass away, for the spirit of the empire will be upon us."

Is there any spot in these United States where the spirit of 1776 is dead and forgotten and the Fourth of July a meaningless date on the calendar?

One of the most ridiculous of these prophecies was contained in a speech Mr. Bryan made in support of Judge Parker during the campaign of 1891, when he attacked President Roosevelt bitterly. This prophecy had it that military despotism was sure to follow the decrease in the size of the standing army. In this speech Mr. Bryan also emphasized the fact that he was then and always would be a firm believer in the principle of free silver. He summed up his position on this question in the following sentence:

"I believe today in the principles set forth at Chicago and Kansas City (16 to 1) and shall continue to fight for those principles."

LABOR WORLD FOR TAFT.

Characterizes Him as True Friend of the Workingman.

[From the Concord (N. H.) Monitor.]
The Labor World comes out strongly in its advocacy of Mr. Taft. It characterizes him a true friend of labor and declares that the unfair attacks of Mr. Gompers will have little or no effect in alienating from him the labor world. It says: "That Secretary Taft is a true friend of labor is certain, and all the untrue, ungenerous, vicious attacks that President Gompers or any one else may make on him cannot prevent him from continuing to be the friend of the wage worker. Organized labor cannot afford to have itself split up into factions on this political issue. That President Gompers is wrong in forcing this most ominous fight is certain, and intelligent wage workers will certainly come to this conclusion."

JUDSON OUT FOR TAFT.

Chicago University's Head So Notifies
Chief Bryan Organ.

To the Editor of the New York World:
I shall vote for the Republican electors because I believe, on the whole, Mr. Taft's equipment for the administration of the federal government, based on his ripe and successful experience, makes him desirable that he should be the successor of Mr. Roosevelt. Further, on the whole, the policies which I believe that Mr. Taft will carry out are more nearly those which I approve.

HARRY PRATT JUDSON,
President Chicago University.
Chicago, Aug. 12.

Anti-Injunctions.

Attorney General Wade H. Ellis of Ohio, who was a member of the committee on resolutions of the Republican national convention, makes the following reply to the criticisms of the platform made by W. J. Bryan. The attorney general says in part:

"The charge made by Mr. Bryan that the Republican declaration with respect to the use of the writ of injunction was designed to 'deceive the laboring man' is unworthy of a candidate for president, and the further charge that this plank merely declares the existing law and will give no relief in those cases in which there has been an abuse or discretion or the apprehension of it is unworthy of any lawyer who has examined the question.

"The anti-injunction resolution is a frank, clear statement of the Republican party's position on a question on which others have been attempting to deceive labor. The sole basis of any rational complaint as to the issuance of injunctions in labor cases has been the use of the writ without notice and the long delays in some instances which have intervened before a hearing of the case.

"The present statute does not require any notice at all before the granting of a temporary order, and it is entirely within the discretion of the court to postpone to any time the judge may see fit the hearing upon the question of an injunction. The Republican plank simply declares that notice shall always be given unless an irreparable injury will result from delay, and in that case there shall be a speedy hearing provided. It will meet the approval of every right thinking man, whether an employer or an employee."

Taft and Labor.

When on the bench Judge Taft said: That employees have a right to form labor unions.

That such unions are a benefit to labor and to the public.

That they have the right to join with other unions.

That the accumulation of a fund to aid in a strike is right.

That employees have a right to strike whenever any of the terms of their employment are unsatisfactory.

Mr. Gompers says Judge Taft is opposed to organized labor. Mr. Gompers has done a lot of talking in his time and has been a very prolific writer, but in all he has said or in all he has written he has never given organized labor a more unqualified endorsement than Judge Taft gave when on the bench.

"An aggregation of experimental malcontents and theorists," Mr. Sherman's description of the Democratic party, is a phrase that hits the target right in the center.

Honors are easy again. Every time Mr. Taft buys a new horse Mr. Bryan mounts a new hobby.—Omaha Bee.

But He Runs on Forever.

[From the New York Sun.]
What will Mr. Bryan say after next election day? Mr. Bryan will insist that he is an optimist. Beaten three times! What of that? He's the one great Democrat willing for his fellow men to be beaten once again.

Read the Commoner and learn! Mr. Bryan, Mr. Kern, sail together on this trip in the old, oft stranded ship. (They have quarters in the stern!)

In this antiquated craft, while they gaze at Mr. Taft miles ahead—the race near done. And by Taft and Sherman won—Mr. Bryan, ever wise. Doubtless will philosophize. And to Mr. Kern recite that remark, already trite, 'Al prepared and often sprung: "Beaten? Yes, but I'm still young! I can wait another four years, then try the race once more. I have got this thing down pat. I'm the one great Democrat!"—Julian Durand.

"According to His Folly."

"Shall the people rule?" is declared by the Democratic platform and candidate to be 'the overshadowing issue now under discussion.' It is no issue. Surely the people shall rule; surely the people have ruled; surely the people do rule." Thus Candidate Sherman replies to Candidate Bryan, and if the latter was looking for a straight answer he certainly got it. But those familiar with the mental processes of Mr. Bryan know that he would welcome no reply, but that his absurd question was asked to instill doubt in the minds of his more thoughtful followers.

Democratic Discouragement.

At the risk of calling down upon ourselves further execrations from a few of the faithful and fanatical we make bold to remark that the indifference of the South Carolina Democrats to the cause of Mr. Bryan seems to justify our prediction some months ago that the campaign would end with the Denver convention. We wish that we could be disillusioned; we wish that the Democrats of South Carolina and of the country would sharply rebuke us for saying that there was an absence of enthusiasm for Mr. Bryan.—Charleston News and Courier (Dem.).

ENRAGED HUSBAND

Seeks the Life of the De-spoiler of His Home --- Murder Averted By the Courage and Coolness of a Determined Woman

A Wayward Wife and Her Par-amour Come to Grief

Saturday night about 10:30 o'clock a comely couple, having the appearance of gentlefolks, arrived at the Kentucky Hotel and requested lodging for the night, giving their names as S. Kennard and Miss Annie Fry.

On being interrogated by the proprietress as to who and what they were and after giving satisfactory and plausible answers to all questions propounded, they were permitted to register and assigned to separate rooms.

Later on, three men—who proved to be William Fry, the injured husband, Ross Fry, his brother, and George Garrett, cousin of the woman, called and inquired if a party by the name of Kennard was stopping there. Being answered in the affirmative, the spokesman, William Fry, said he was a brother of Kennard and it was essential that he should speak to him on important business.

Not suspecting any wrongdoing, the lady of the house conducted Fry to Kennard's room, which was found unoccupied. Supposing that he had gone out in town, she approached the woman's room and knocked on the door for the purpose of inquiring if she knew whether he had gone.

Without hesitation Mrs. Fry answered the summons by opening the door of her room and appearing—well, en dishabille, does not exactly express it.

Fry, who was following close behind his conductress, on seeing his wife, exclaimed, "My God!" and almost instantly struck at her with a knife he held concealed in his hand, and that the blade did not find lodgment in the intended victim's breast is due to the prompt action of the landlady.

Kennard was in bed asleep in the room, unconscious of what was taking place, but his respite was for only a short time. In the meantime Fry's two companions had joined in the affray and Kennard was the object of their wrath. In the melee Mrs. Fry escaped to another part of the building.

Had it not have been for the courage displayed by the proprietress, Fry would have been killed, but she restored order

COMING EVERY DAY

My heavy purchases of goods for the fall and winter trade. When all in my stock will be complete and of the very best that can be produced.

ALWAYS IN STOCK,

A complete line of Red Canvass Hams and Breakfast Bacon and finest Leaf Lard, packed specially for my trade from young, healthy hogs. The only house in Maysville that handles these specially made goods.

PERFECTION FLOUR,

Ground from new wheat, is now coming, and as the wheat crop in the section where this famous Flour is made is unusually fine, I have no hesitancy in offering the Flour to my trade as the very best that can be produced. Every barrel guaranteed.

Fine Blended Coffees is one of my hobbies. I buy my Coffees green from one of the largest importers in large quantities, have them roasted as I need them and they are always sold to my trade fresh. I have no competition in these fine goods, either in quality or price.

FINE TEAS

A specialty. For those who use iced teas I recommend "Heno" Tea, a very fine mixed tea sold only in packages.

A big supply of TIN CANS and Mason Fruit Jars at lowest prices. In fact, my stock is always full, complete and up-to-date in every respect. No stale or unwholesome goods ever offered.

Cash paid for Butter, Eggs and such Country Produce as I can handle in my business.

Always a full supply of Fruits and Vegetables. 500 best cure Country Hams wanted. Your patronage is respectfully solicited.

in a way not to be misunderstood and soon rid her house of the unwelcome presence of the woman and four men.

Kennard and Mrs. Fry were arrested and locked up on a disorderly charge and in a few hours thereafter plead guilty and were fined $10 and costs each. Kennard gave a check for the amount on a Manchester Bank, which was accepted and both were discharged from custody.

The parties interested live near Fearis, Lewis county, and it is said this is not Kennard's first offense of like character.

Fry is very resentful and vows he will have nothing further to do with his wife.

Mrs. Fry is 19 and Fry is 24. They have a babe fifteen months old.

WIFE'S CRIME

Enraged Woman Murders Husband At Flemingsburg This Morning and Then Attempts Suicide

At Flemingsburg this morning at 9:20, while standing at the railroad office purchasing a ticket to Maysville, Edward Smoot was shot four times in the back by his wife and instantly killed.

The woman then attempted to shoot herself, but only wounded herself in the arm.

Jealously is supposed to be the cause of the crime.

Smoot was about thirty years of age and left Maysville yesterday, after a week at the K. of P. Carnival where he had a ball-throwing concession.

Governor Hanly of Indiana spoke at Portsmouth yesterday.

The barn of Mrs. T. R. Downing, near Nicholasville, burned with valuable contents. Loss, $1,500.

The employees of THE PUBLIC LEDGER will have a half holiday this afternoon to enjoy Labor Day.

The remains of W. T. Murphy, who was accidentally killed while in the employ of a railroad at Lafayette, Washington, some three weeks ago, mention of which was made in THE LEDGER at the time, arrived here Saturday and the funeral took place this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Church. Interment in Washington. The deceased was a son of John Murphy of Cottageville, and was a most worthy young man.

The remains of Mrs. Rebecca Orledge arrived here yesterday on the 1:36 train, being accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Simon Nowell and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Orledge and Mrs. Mary Dimmitt. The funeral took place this morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Hechinger in West Front street, with services by Rev. B. F. Chatham of the M. E. Church, South. Interment in the family lot in Maysville Cemetery.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dead disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for anyone that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

A FAILURE

Is Prohibition Declares Head of the Anti-Saloon League in Georgia

That prohibition is a failure in Atlanta was practically admitted by Superintendent Richards of the Georgia Anti-Saloon League. "Beer is being sold here right and left," said Mr. Richards, "and I know it. One fellow has the nerve to put up a sign, 'The Beer That Made Milwaukee Famous.' You can get any brand you want. You can get whisky, too, for what does it mean when twenty-seven carloads of whisky and beer have been shipped here?"

The "wet" conditions that exist in Atlanta exist also in Savannah and other Georgia cities.

Superintendent Richards says the Anti-Saloon League will begin a State-wide crusade to enforce the law.

NATURE TELLS YOU.

As Many a Maysville Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Infrequent or too frequent action; Any urinary trouble tells of kidney illa. Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney illa.

John G. Morris, Jail Keeper, living on Main street, Flemingsburg, Ky., says:

"I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as being all that is claimed for them. Several months ago I was suffering severely from kidney disorders, and although I tried many remedies, I was unable to obtain relief. My kidneys were very weak and irregular in action, causing me much inconvenience and annoyance. I lost a great deal of sleep on this account. Finally Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me. I procured a box at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore and began using them. I was surprised at the quick results, as the trouble entirely disappeared and I have had no return of any of the symptoms since. I cannot speak too highly of Doan's Kidney Pills."

You Would Feel Better If You Had a

Good Summer Tonic

Most people at this time of the year need a good general system tonic. Even those who take the very best care of themselves find that they are obliged in the hot weather to tone up the system. You may not feel the need of it this week, but you will before long! But whether you do now or not remember that PECOR'S ORANGE PHOSPHO is the best known SYSTEM TONIC. It acts through the blood on every part of the system, reviving and stimulating it to new life and injecting the whole body full of energy. JUST WHAT YOU NEED. Only 50 cents per bottle.

THE NORTHWESTERN MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Not only sells the BEST and BROADEST contract, but returns LARGER dividends and therefore insures at a LOW net cost. The new 1905 policy of THE NORTHWESTERN is a marvel of completeness. It covers as many of life's contingencies, probable or possible, as can be met by money. It is like a will, except that it provides the estate that it distributes. It contains large Loan and Cash values. It provides Automatic Paid-up or Extended Insurance, and for Reinstatement at any time within FIVE YEARS after lapse. NO OTHER company offers as many or as varied OPTIONS of Settlement, under ANY or ALL of its policies combined, as THE NORTHWESTERN offers under its ONE policy. For further information apply to
